

To who it may Concern Greeting That my Grandfather Name had been Ludwig Mantte he came from Marseilles France and settled down in Dürrenwangen he was a Miller by trade he bought of the Milles there my Father Andreas Mantte was born and one sister who afterwards Married a Cousin of the Warneberger family the Grandmother died early leaving the two Children and her husband Ludwig Mantte to mourn for her the Son Andreas Mantte father of John Mantte had been well educated and came to this Country in his thirty year of age enlisted in the U. S. Army at the time of the Mexican War and got up to be a Colonel then he came back to Germany again and married his second wife my Mother he lived in Germany until 1848 when he took up Command of a Rebel Regt. agant the Government at the time of the Revolution but had to leave the Country afterwards by Order of the German Government.